The Job

As a full service production company, we own a range of filmmaking equipment and are now looking for an ambitious self starter to join our team in a newly created role, looking after our beloved film equipment to ensure our team of filmmakers have equipment in optimum condition for every shoot. You will be based in our lively Brighton studio with the opportunity to travel with shoots where required.

Duties include but are not limited to:

- Preparing, then checking in and out kit for shoots
- On location camera assistant and DIT work
- Cleaning, maintaining, organising repairs
- Updating software and firmware on kit
- Logging kit history
- Upkeep of kit storage area
- Upkeep of post production equipment and file management
- Making clients aware of our kit through blogging and social media
- Reselling old and unused kit
- Managing external hires
- General IT technician duties

Who we are looking for

Above all else, you must LOVE kit. You should have an awareness of what is out there in the tech world and your passion and up-to-date knowledge is something you will want to share with anyone who will listen. Ideally you will have worked in a kit hire company or as a camera assistant and are now looking to join a team committed to excellence in filmmaking.

You will be painfully meticulous and methodical. You will be able to realise the most effective systems to make our workflow thrive.

You'll want to be part of a team but you will be able to thrive working individually. You'll take complete control of our kit and take pride in its upkeep.

Required Skills

- Experience working with video kit on and off location a must
- Camera Assistant experience preferable
- High attention to detail
- IT literate
- Must hold a valid driving license and be prepared to drive to and from shoots where required

Salary

Remuneration based on experience but our salary will be in the region of £18,000 for this role.

Please contact hello@progressfilm.co.uk with your CV and cover letter telling us why you are right for this role.

Thank you.
