

Production Manager

About us

The Progress Film Company was founded by filmmakers, for filmmakers. Brought together by our passion for making breathtaking content and independent films, our award winning studio by the sea is making waves. Our unique company model and amazing variety of clients means that each project feeds the next, allowing us to think big and, most importantly, make films we love.

What we need from you

At Progress, people are our strongest asset. The key link between client and creatives during pre and post production, you know how to manage situations and take on a challenge with gusto. You think big and your strongest quality is that you stay positive at all times. You're at your best when you need to think on your feet and out of the box. Become an integral part of our production team to drive our projects forward, managing shoots on time and on budget.

You're efficient to the point of compulsion. You take pride in a job superbly done. We're looking at all experience levels. If you think we need your talent and ambition in our Brighton studio, send us your details to tell us why.

- Professional experience as a Production Manager
- Painfully meticulous attention to detail
- An infectious and collaborative positive attitude - whether you're leading or supporting a project
- Excellent research skills
- The dogged determination to go above and beyond
- Brilliant communication skills - good literacy and numeracy are a must
- Pride in your work that you can't wait to share

We give you

- A super talented team of creatives
- A lively studio in the heart of Brighton
- A varied and exciting client base and daily routine
- Opportunity to pitch on work for incredible brands

Salary

Remuneration based on experience.
